WWOA's Open Woods

Saturday, May 18, 2019

9 am - 2 pm

Hosted by:

Blackhawk Chapter
Green Co. Forestry
Education Center
W6037 Co Rd P
Monroe in Green County

To get to the property from Monroe, head south on WI HWY 69 for 5.5 miles. Turn left on Co Rd P and go 0.2 miles to W6037 located on the right (south side). Look for the WWOA Open Woods signs to help you find the location.

WI DNR Forester – Cody Didier
GCFEC Board Members
Wisconsin Chapter Walnut Council

- 9:00am – Welcome by the Organizers and meet the foresters
- 9:30 am – Demonstrations of a wood-mizer sawmill and firewood processor
- 10:30 am to Noon – Take a Walk Thru the Woods
- 1:00 pm – Demonstrations and presentations repeated

Join us for a fun day in the woods filled with tours, great speakers, and more. Bring the whole family for a fun and educational day outdoors! See how portable sawmills and firewood processors make the job easier! Hike the trails with knowledgeable foresters to see and learn about this property that Albert and Marion Deppeler, Charter Members of WWOA, provided to educate the local community about woodlands and how to manage them. Bring a picnic lunch and folding chair to complement the snacks provided and take in the sights and sounds of nature while you eat.

Thank you to the Green County Forestry Education Center & WI Chapter Walnut Council
