

Wisconsin Woodland Owners Association

Jokes for Kids and the Young at Heart

Jokes	Answers
How do porcupines communicate?	Through spine language
What kind of trees do twins love to plant?	Pears
Why did the pine tree get in trouble?	It was knotty
How many skunks live in the area?	Quite a, phew!
What did the tree wear to the pool party?	Its swimming trunks
How do conifer trees get ready for a date?	They get all spruced up
What is a sapling's favorite drink?	Root beer
What did the beaver say to the tree?	It's been nice gnawing you!
How does a firefly start a race?	Ready, set, glow!
How do birds find their nesting place?	They follow the "egg-sit" signs
What type of movies do weeping willows like?	Sappy Romances
Why were the other trees jealous of the Aspen?	Because it was so poplar.
How do you get down from a tree?	You can't. Down comes from a goose.
What is a tree's least favorite month?	Sep-timber
How can you tell a tree doesn't know the answer to something?	It shrubs
How do woodland mammals keep their fur nice?	They use pine combs
A tree hears a knock on the door and says, "who's there?"	The other tree responds, "Yew know who!"
What's the best way to carve a piece of wood?	Whittle by whittle
What kind of shoes do amphibians recommend?	Open toad sandals
Why are river birches good with money?	They grew up in the banks
You know what they say about nosy trees?	They're always leavesdropping
How can you identify a dogwood tree?	By its bark
You lost your keys in the forest, who do you call?	The hemlocksmith
What kind of bears like to go out in the rain?	Drizzly bears
Why do you call a group of trees a stand?	Because they can't sit down